Amended and approved by the 4th Administrative Affairs Meeting on May 10, 2023

Article 1 To reward outstanding students from disadvantaged backgrounds at the University and promote virtue and learning, these guidelines are hereby established.

Article 2 Students (excluding in-service students) at the University confirmed with a disadvantaged background may apply for the scholarship if they meet the following criteria:

1. Undergraduate students whose academic performance ranks top 25% of the class.
2. Master's and doctoral students with an average GPA of 3.76 (or 85 on a percentage scale) or above.
3. No disciplinary records during the academic period.
4. Completion of at least one semester of experiential learning.

Article 3 Application dates and methods for this scholarship are as follows:

1. Application Dates: Announced annually by the Scholarship Committee.
2. Application Method: Applicants for this scholarship must submit the following documents:
 - (1) Scholarship application form.
 - (2) Transcript of academic rankings and grades for each year (master's and doctoral students must also submit one letter of recommendation from a faculty member).
 - (3) Record of disciplinary actions over the years.
 - (4) Copy of the household certificate (for overseas students, a copy of the resident certificate should be submitted instead).

(5) Certificate of low-income household, middle-to-low-income household, children from families in hardship (with a family income of less than NT$ 700,000, total real estate value less than NT$ 6.5 million, and interest income within NT$ 20,000) or proof of overseas disadvantaged students (certified by the Office of International Relations).

(6) Proof of Certificate of Enrollment or a copy of the front and back of the student ID card.

(7) Photocopy of the cover page of the applicant's bank or postal savings account passbook.

Article 4 Overseas students who receive government subsidies from their home country or other scholarships from the University are not eligible to concurrently receive this scholarship.

Article 5 1. The scholarship amount is NT$ 30,000 per recipient, and the number of recipients is within the budget for the academic year at the University.

2. The acceptance criteria and list of awardees are determined by the Scholarship Committee.

Article 6 The guidelines herein shall be promulgated upon approval by the Scholarship Committee Meeting and the Administrative Affairs Meeting.
